Getting Acquainted with First Lady Wendy

Our First Lady Wendy Urschitz was born Wendy Kay King on January 2, 1967, in Bellefontaine, Ohio. She was part of a close-knit family which included an older brother and two younger sisters, all of whom remain very close to this day. Wendy's father passed away in 2003 at the young age of 60, but her mother remains in good health. We have had the pleasure of meeting "Mom" twice, while the rest of the family has been here at least once. (Lucky them! --they helped rescue Pastor Erv when his chair fell off the platform, since they were in the front row!)

In school, Wendy took every available math class, even skipping lunch and study halls to fit extra classes into her schedule. She "just liked it." She enjoys puzzles and problem-solving.

Wendy and her brother were very close -- more like twins. They enjoyed a nurturing relationship and worked well together.

When it came time for college Wendy started at ITT in Dayton the very next day after her high school graduation, studying electronical engineering technology. She worked briefly in Indiana and then went to work for the Federal Aviation Administration in Mansfield where she met Pastor Erv at a church fellowship group in 1987 and where they just enjoyed a fun-fellowship time. It was a transitional time for Wendy, moving from Dayton to Mansfield, and it took a while for the two of them to admit they liked each other. In fact, Wendy turned down Erv's first request for a date! She's not sure when the relationship charged, but obviously it did since they married on August 25th, 1990. Even at that time Wendy knew that her life would involve being a pastor's wife, which she wholeheartedly embraced since church was a very important part of her life.

On August 3rd, 1994, their only child, son Caleb, was born during their appointment Continued in the next column.)

to Caldwell north of Marietta, where they served for five years, after which they were appointed to Orangeville-Vernon in northeast Ohio for seven years. An interesting sidelight to this experience is that this dual charge was divided between Pennsylvania and Ohio, making communications, taxes, etc., more complex at times! Following that appointment they spent ten years in McDonaldsville in North Canton - and then to Middlefield.

Caleb attended kindergarten through grade six in the Badger Local Schools, completing grades 7 -- 12 in the Jackson Local Schools, graduating in 2012.

Other interesting events in Wendy's life included playing softball in high school, and because Caleb played baseball, the little family enjoyed sports and spent a great deal of family time playing catch and related activities. She's an avid Ohio sports fan and related attending an Ohio State football game a couple of years ago -- an "electric" experience if you've never been to Ohio Stadium!

Both Wendy's father and her brother were in the military, and her brother's positions have enabled her to visit the White House as well as the Pentagon. She's very proud of her brother, one of whose positions was serving as the driver for the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Wendy enjoys church involvement and is currently participating in the "Disciple" class plus other small groups, which has enabled her to meet more people within the church family. This warm, friendly lady is pleased to immerse herself in church activities and is "just thankful for being a Christian" since she accepted Jesus at age 8. And WE'RE just thankful that our congregation is blessed by her presence! We hope our relationship will be a very lengthy one!

Pastor's Letter

While many things in this life can bring us down and disturb us, I truly believe we are always to be lifting one another up. With Mother's day approaching let us lift up our Mothers and give thanks for all they have invested in us. My Mother passed over a year ago now. Yet I recall her love for me and the many ways she expressed that love. Even the spring violets, both purple and white found in the yard remind me of her and her love of flowers. Consider your mom as this story I came across illustrates this idea. A teenager entered the kitchen one evening while his mother was preparing dinner. As the boy sauntered through the room, he placed a slip of paper on the counter. He then took a seat at the table and waited quietly. When she found a moment to pause from her meal preparation, mom dried her hands on her apron. She picked up the paper and read what her son had written.

Cutting the grass:	$10.00
Cleaning my room all week:	$5.00
Running errands:	$2.00
Two hours of baby-sitting:	$10.00
Taking out the garbage:	$2.00
Maintaining good grades:	$5.00
Total owed:	$34.00

The boy studied his mother as she examined his "bill." She said nothing, but fished a pen from the pocket of her apron. Mom turned the paper over and began to write. In a few moments she stopped, placed the pen and paper on the counter and continued preparing dinner. Curious, the boy walked over and picked up his "bill," and read what his mother had written.

Nine months of pregnancy:	No charge
Late night feedings:	No charge
Diaper changes:	No charge
Potty training:	No charge
Bandaging scrapes/scratches:	No charge
Bedtime stories:	No charge
Doctor and dentist visits:	No charge
Taxi service:	No charge
Academic tutoring:	No charge
Seasonal cheerleading:	No charge
Hugs and encouragement:	No charge
Etiquette training:	No charge
Food procurement/meal prep:	No charge
Clothes, toys, etc.:	No charge
Total owed:	No charge

When the boy looked up from the paper, his eyes were filling with tears. He took the pen from the counter, turned the paper over and hastily scribbled on it. He handed the paper to his mom. (Continued on page 6)

Getting to Know You.... Kerry Culp

I started going to Middlefield United Methodist Church in May 2008. I am the second child of four. My sister, Kelly, is the oldest, then me, then my brothers Kent and Kreig. My mom, Bonnie, was born in September 1943. As many of you know, my dad, William, died in April 2016. I have 2 nieces, Victoria and Emily; 3 nephews, Logan, Luke, and Owen; and one great-nephew, Jack. Kelly is married to Alan, and Kent is married to Monica. Emily is getting married to Joey Adelman this September.

I work at Kraftmaid in the purchasing department. I have been with Kraftmaid since November 2004, but moved to the purchasing department in August 2016. I LOVE sports and music! (I get that from my dad!) I always loved spending time with him, watching any Ohio sports teams and singing in different church choirs.

My greatest life adventure was probably when I went to Mexico on vacation. I was going down to meet a long-time friend who was there serving for Campus Crusade for Christ (CRU). I don't speak fluent Spanish, so until I met up with my friend, it was tricky!

I love to serve my church and have done so since I first came here. I have served on the Finance Committee and as a group leader in VBS. I am currently serving on the Leadership Board as a Staff/Parish-Relations Committee Specialist (SPRC). I also coordinate and teach the Children's Sunday School Program, "Deep Blue", and will be VBS Director for the second year this summer. Once a month or so I help count offering after worship service. (This editor would like to encourage all to consider signing up to help serve alongside Kerry in any of the areas she serves. There is strength and fun in numbers!)

You asked who or what has had the biggest effect on my faith journey. To answer that question, I have to give a history of my church life. My parents got married at North Bristol Christian Church (NBCC) in 1964, and that was where we attended until I was 12 years old. There were 3 years when we didn't go to church. (Continued on pg. 5, see Kerry)

Getting to Know...Kerry Culp

(Continued from page 4) At school, some of my friends went to the Bristolville UMC. I started going there when in high school and my family went there for a few years. Once I graduated from high school and went to Youngstown State, my family stopped going to church. I didn't go back to church until my senior year at YSU, and then I went to Richard Brown UMC, because it was within walking distance from my apartment. The greeters that first Sunday at Richard Brown UMC were Mary Lou and Jack. They realized I was new right off, and stuck with me the entire day! Another influence on me has been Dale Briggs, the current pastor at NBCC. He is a great man of God, and has shown my family and me great love and compassion, especially in this year since Dad's passing.

I have witnessed God working in and through Middlefield UMC when people have really stepped up for me in the time since my dad died. That event rocked my world and my family to the core! People listened and didn't judge me for what I was saying, venting about, or anything. My faith has been tested since my dad's passing, and I can't imagine my life without those folk—they were the hands, eyes, ears, and feet of Christ for me.

I would like to see that same caring attitude spread to everyone in this church: for us to be kind to each other, to be supportive, to step into service in the programs at our church. If we can do that, it will show the community that we have endured and are back stronger than ever. That could repair the opinion people have of our church, and help us to grow up into the Church God wants us to be.

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven...Eccl. 3:1"

Congratulations to the Graduates of the Class of 2017

Brenna King

Brenna King will graduate from Cardinal High School on May 20th, 2017 and continue in the Work Experience Program. From her sophomore year through her senior year, she very much enjoyed playing the flute in the Marching Band.

Brenna plans on visiting her sister Ayla in Minnesota this summer. Brenna is very proud of her sister Ayla, who is training to be an Air Traffic Controller.

In her spare time, Brenna enjoys flying, water skiing, swimming, boating and hanging out with her friends. She will also enjoy horseback riding when she visits Minnesota.

This fall, Brenna plans on continuing to work at Geauga Hospital where she enjoys helping to meet the needs of people visiting the hospital. She also will work at Heinen's food store and plans on continuing there through the work experience program.

Erin Ross

Erin Ross will be graduating from Cardinal High School 3rd in her class and with a GPA of 4.314. She will also be receiving an honors diploma and special cords for being a member of the National Honor Society. Throughout her high school career Erin has won multiple awards including academic achievement in English, Mathematics, and Government. She also received the Harvard Book Award in the spring of 2016. Erin is also a three year letterman in soccer and a four year letterman in track and field.

This summer Erin plans on furthering her preparation for college and continuing to work at The Welshfield Inn and Banquet Center where she will earn some extra money for college books and expenses. She also hopes to spend time with friends and make some memories before each goes their separate ways.

Subsequent to graduation from Cardinal

High School, Erin will be attending Ohio Wesleyan University where she will study Business Administration and run as a member of the OWU track and field team. Erin hopes to also be accepted into a New York Arts program through the school that will allow her to internship and focus more on the business and marketing aspects of fashion. When Erin graduates college she hopes to start a career working in the fashion industry, possibly for a magazine company, and eventually would love to start her own fashion business.

When Erin has spare time, she enjoys listening to music, writing poetry, and hanging out with friends and loved ones. She also loves to play soccer and going up to the field with her team. Throughout her high school career she has played/ran both soccer and track and loves them both immensely.

McKinzy Rupp

McKinzy Rupp will be graduating from Cardinal High School having been on the honor roll all but one quarter. During her high school years, she enjoyed being the statistician for the girls' basketball team. McKinzy also enjoyed her high school years because she feels it helps students explore what they would like to do and be in the future.

To continue working to help her save for her college is what McKinzy is planning for the summer. Having been accepted into Penn State, she will be studying to be a Crime Scene Investigator.

Beneficial to her studies is McKinzy's love of reading. She also likes going to baseball games, going to the beach and hanging out with her friends and family.

Kasey Linberg

Kasey Linberg will graduate from Cardinal High School on Saturday, May 20th having been on the Honor Roll for 4 years, participated in Marching Band for 5 years, sang with the Cardinares for 4 years, entertained with the Concert Band for 4 years, played volleyball for 2 years and joyfully helped in the church nursery for 4 years. She will be greatly missed in the nursery.

This summer, Kasey will be working to save money for college. She will also enjoy her summer with her graduation celebration, a vacation in Delaware, and a trip to New York City.

Pastor's Note

She looked at it. Written across the "bill" were the words "paid in full." The boy hugged his mother and whispered, "I love you."

While our moms deserve appreciation much more than once a year, Mother's Day provides a special opportunity for children to say, "Thanks mom, I love you!"

One might ask, "What if my mother is not like the one described in the story?" Sadly, not all moms fulfill their roles as admirably as the one mentioned above. However, the Bible instructs us to honor our mothers. That means we are to treat them with dignity and respect. How do you honor a mom that has not been the model mother? Jesus said that we should treat others the way we would want them to treat us. How would you like your mother to treat you? Respond to her in that manner.

Well known UCLA basketball Coach John Wooden believed how a person treated his or her mother provided valuable insight into an individual's true colors. According to the coach, disrespect and a lack of courtesy reveal an attitude of ingratitude. And it is an attitude he would rather do without.

Make your mom's day special. Thank her for what she did right!

Blessed in the remembering of my Mom, Lillian Viola Urschitz,

In the fall, Kasey will be attending Cleveland State University and majoring in Early Childhood Education and minoring in Music. She has aspirations of teaching either 1st or 2nd grade students.

Playing the trumpet or mandolin, playing with her dogs, seeing any and all musicals, listening to music, and going to concerts are some of Kasey's favorite activities that she enjoys in her free time.

Congratulations to all students in the Class of 2017, but especially these 4 young ladies who we appreciate so much and who seem to have grown up so fast. May God bless all of you so abundantly, may you keep your eyes on Him and He will surely "be a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path".
